

Engineering Forum of Nigerians (EFN-UK)

In association with

Nigerian Association of Project Professionals UK (NAPPUK)

Present

Joint Technical Seminar on NEC3

Date: Wednesday 9th May 2012

Time: 6:00pm

Venue: Transport for London. Palestra, 197 Blackfriars Road, London SE1 8NJ

Guest Speaker: Yinka Conde BSc (QS), MSc (Const. PM) FNIQS

Highlights

This seminar will provide you with the following:

- Definition, overview of and the application of the NEC3 family of contracts
- Key characteristics of NEC3 and suitability for procuring a diverse range of works, services and supplies, spanning major projects through to minor works and purchasing of individual supplies and goods
- Case studies and benefits of using the NEC3 contracts

The Guest Speaker

Yinka Conde is an experienced consultant and a coach with over 30 years experience that includes procurement, contract and construction project management, business and career development. She is a trainer on NEC 3 Forms of Contract.

Yinka founded YCC to inspire, challenge and provide training and coaching support to individuals and businesses that are passionate about their success and fulfilment in business, personal development. She is an experienced facilitator who enjoys working with groups and individuals.

Registration

The seminar is free and is CPD certified but registration is essential. If you wish to attend please send an email to f.bolaji@efn.org.uk or register online at www.nappuk.org/events